2. Read the passage below and fill in the blanks with the most appropriate word. (10mks)
Addiction is an escape (1)reality, and different people will find different (2) to escape from the real word. They can be addicted to food water, power, work, gambling, sex, love (3) even to destructive relationships. Do these belong in the same category (4) alcohol or drugs? And if so, does recovery from those "people addictions" work the same way as with alcohol and drugs?
Addicts look for substitutes and (5) Addicts look for substitutes, and (5)reason behind this is always the same: to escape, to close one eye and not to (6)the facts. By becoming fat, the overeater insulates himself from the world around. It is better to be rejected (7)the way they look, than for who they are as a person. Thus, being fat becomes a way to avoid the risk of intimacy. There are people who are

I wonder by the edge
Of this desolate lake Where wind cries in the sledge
Until the axle break
That keeps the stars in their round
And hands hurt in the deep
The banners of east and west
And the girdle of light is unbound,
Your breast will not lie by the breast
Of your beloved in sleep
