Q. 1 You are the Principal of your school and the local area member of Parliament has invited the Deputy Principal and the school captain to a luncheon at a top class hotel in town. This is as a result of the good K.C.S.E. performance of your school.

Write a memo to the concerned groups informing them of the same. Give them directions to the location of the Imperial Hotel where the occasion will take place. (20 mks)

Q2. CLOZE TEST

	Implementing two-thirds gender rule was the biggest headache for the 11 th Parliament even as it ahead of the August 8 elections. indeed, t	failed to a legislation that 3 that not more than two thirds of the members of elective shall be of the same gender.
	The Constitution recognizes women, the youth, persons with4 and marginalized ethnic minorities as special people deserving5 protection. The supreme law obligates the Government to develop and pas laws on6 action to address the past discrimination that special groups have gone7 The 11 th Parliament, twice failed to pass this law within five years as provided for in the supreme law. Two 8 that sought to implement this law failed to sail through. This 9 has now been passed on to the 12 th Parliament that comes into place after the August elections. The question remains whether we have the rightsystem to address the issue without overburdening the tax payer.

Q3. ORAL SKILLS

(30 MARKS)

a) Read the poem below and answer the question that follows.

BURY ME IN A FREE LAND

Make me a grave wherever you will,
In a lowly plain, or a lofty hill;
Make it among earth's humblest graves,
But not in a land where men are slaves,

i could not rest if around my grave,

I heard the steps of a trembling slave;
His shadow above my silent tomb
Would make it a place of fearful gloom
I could not rest if heard the thread
Of a gang to the shambles led,
And the mothers shriek of wild despair
Rise like a curse on trembling air.
